2 2. Compliance Controls and Prohibition of Resale

2.1 2.1 Anti-Arbitrage and Commercial Prohibition

The employee discount is intended strictly for personal use or gifts for immediate family members residing within the same household:

1. Resale Violation: Purchasing items using an employee discount for the purpose of reselling on online marketplaces (e.g., eBay, Amazon, StockX) is strictly prohibited.
2. Audit Monitoring: HR performs random serial-number tracking cross-checks against third-party registration databases.
3. Disciplinary Action: Any employee found in violation of this anti-arbitrage policy faces immediate termination of employment and potential legal recovery of lost retail margins.

2.2 2.2 Purchasing Procedure

Employees must execute purchases through the internal staff portal or present their valid corporate digital badge at POS checkout. Purchases made using personal discount credentials must be paid using a credit or debit card bearing the employee's legal name.
